

stool #3

DETAILS

The backless version of our classic counter stool. Perfect for kitchens that require a low-profile stool, but still seek a hint of drama. Pair this backless beauty at the end of an island with our stool #2 to add additional seating without the clutter.

Dressed in a performance rattan, this teak stool is designed to stand the test of time in any outdoor environment. It's equally beautiful indoors, especially for young families who value the ability to give the stools a deep clean. This is by our most durable and versatile material story.
